

The News-Herald.

Office: Eggard Building, W. Main St.

DECEMBER 6, 1888.

We pay 50c. for choice Hitting Wheat.

Try Garrett Bros. Red Band Cream Lotion for chapped hands.

The familiar face of Judge Delaplane is again seen on our streets.

Mr. Robt. McClure, of Columbus, spent part of last week visiting his parents.

Mrs. Eli Stafford, of Altoona, Kas., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Jeans.

Chapped hands cured with Red Band Cream Lotion made and sold by Garrett Bros.

Morrow Bros. have some handsome new designs in fancy china and queensware.

Miss Etta Wiles, of Cumminsville, was visiting friends in this place last week.

Mr. Owen Burns ate his Thanksgiving turkey at his home, returning to business last Monday.

Morrow Bros. are offering great bargains in their stock of wall paper, to make room for new goods.

Mr. Geo. Holmes, of York, Neb., is visiting his father, Mr. Jacob Holmes, who resides on Clear Creek.

For rent—A house of eight rooms; well, cistern, stable and necessary out-buildings. Apply at this office.

Wolf's Odorless Acme Blacking; 20c. a bottle, at Byland's. The mammoth size for buggy tops there also.

Mrs. Grace Sloane, who has been absent in Cincinnati for some time past, was visiting her parents last week.

Mr. Geo. Stevens and son, Lee, of Marion, Ind., were called here last week by the death of Mrs. A. M. Stevens.

Wanted.—100,000 feet of ash logs. Also logrun ash lumber. Spot cash. HICKS & DURNELL, Hillsboro.

Dr. McSurely was absent the fore part of the week in Oxford, Ohio, visiting a niece, who is lying at the point of death.

Mrs. Samuel Chaney, in company with her son, Willie, spent a few days last week with relatives and friends in Hillsboro.

Mr. Vernon Overman, accompanied by his friend, H. C. Conkling, of Cincinnati, spent Thursday and Friday of last week in the Hill City.

Mr. John L. Moyes, of the Hunter Manufacturing Company, of Cincinnati, was visiting at the residence of Mr. Richard Burns last week.

Don't fail to go to Morrow Bros. and see their elegant stock of china, glass and queensware, fancy notions, lamps, picture frames and mouldings.

Mr. Harry Bridwell, wife and child, of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, were visitors at the residence of Mr. Bridwell's parents on North High street last Thursday.

I will pay the highest market price for wheat. Burch Miller's old warehouse, in the rear of John Matthews' grocery. Wm. FAVOR.

Mr. G. W. Shockley, one of the proprietors of the Saturday Globe, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, formerly of New Vienna, was in Hillsboro on business last week.

"Gib" Johnson is in trouble. He is charged with assault and battery. The case was not fully sustained, but "Gib" is hammering out the cost on the stonepile.

Mrs. A. T. McClain, of Greenfield, accompanied by her children, Arthur and Mary, were visiting at her brother's, Judge S. F. Steel, during part of last and the fore part of this week.

Baby caps from 50 cents to $1.75 each. Five button kid gloves 75 cents per pair. Corsets from 35 cents to $1. Other ladies' wear and trimmings at corresponding prices at Mrs. R. L. Richards'.

Miss Bertha Swartz, of Wyoming, in company with Miss Clara Greuninger, of Cumminsville, were the guests of Miss Alice Fallon the latter part of last week, leaving for their respective homes last Monday morning.

No jail articles this week. In fact we would rather feast our eyes on a new, substantial and well constructed jail on a good foundation than theorize in words in a newspaper article. We hope the County Commissioners are of the same mind.

Last Saturday's stock sale brought a large crowd of people to Hillsboro, but not many good horses. About thirty head were sold. The purchasers were, Flock, eight; Waul Bros., eight; Russell, six; Dugan six, while a few changed among the farmers.

Three sable damsels were arraigned before Squire Maddox's Police Court on last Monday answering to the names of Mahala Goins, Lydia Baker and Ella Barber. The said misses were charged with disorderly conduct. They were fined five dollars and costs for the privilege.

Highest market price paid for good wheat at Model City Mills.

EVANS & M'GUIRE.

R. L. Atkins, the piano tuner of Cincinnati, is in town.

Miss Lulu Maddox is absent in Cincinnati visiting friends.

Juvenile books, scrap books and games in great variety at Bowles'.

Fancy cups and saucers at lower prices than ever before at Bowles' store.

Garrett's Red Band Cream Lotion is the best thing sold to cure chapped hands.

Bisque dolls, china dolls, wax dolls, indestructible dolls and dressed dolls at Bowles' store.

One of the nicest toilet articles to use after shaving is Garrett's Red Band Cream Lotion.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet at the M. E. Church Thursday afternoon.

Eversard, the cash grocer, you will find is selling goods at bottom prices every time. Try him.

The celebrated Full Moon brand Chesapeake oysters for sale, wholesale and retail, at the West End Grocery.

Plush moires, surahs and other trimmings, full assortment of colors and qualities at Hixson's.

The Marion Harland Cooking Club meets this week at Miss Lucy Bell Smith's. It is lunch that is served this time.

For an elegant line of autograph and photograph albums, family and pocket Bibles, hymn and prayer books go to Bowles'.

Mr. John Littler, formerly of this place, has entered the law office of Newby & Morrow in order to qualify himself for the bar.

The burglary at the West End Grocery will not interfere with our business. We have enough left to supply all our customers.

Imported china dinner sets, tea sets, ice cream sets, pudding sets, fruit sets and salad sets in the china department at Bowles' store.

Teachers are specially invited to the X-mas display at Bowles' book and china store on Saturday.

The H. C. L. C. will meet at the home of Miss Clara Peria on East Main street, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

We have on sale a specially good assortment of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Underwear.

S. E. HIBBEN & CO.

Mrs. Magdalena Reckley and daughter, Miss Daisy, arrived in this city last evening, after a year and a half's residence abroad. They are at present the guests of Mrs. Cotton Mather.

Juvenile temperance meeting at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Please notice the change of time. Mrs. L. R. HILTON, Secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Newby, Mr. Will Newby and Mrs. Fannie Harrison, of New Vienna, and Mrs. Harvey Carter, of Sabina, spent Thanksgiving at this place, the guests of Miss Minnie Williams.

A grand mistake most people make is putting off buying their toys and Christmas presents until the last day. Kelly will be ready to show you the finest line of toys and holiday goods ever brought to this market next week.

Only two weeks more at the present low prices in wall paper at Morrow Bros. In addition to their attractive line of new style chinaware they would call special attention to a fine lot of pictures, which will please the most fastidious.

Wanted.—A business firm or an energetic man or woman to take the agency, in Hillsboro, of a large steam laundry. Good paying rates to the right party. Outfits furnished. Reference requested. Address, FAMOUS LAUNDRY CO., Dayton, O.

Miss Maggie R. McKeehan, of Avondale, accompanied by her friends, Miss Anna Logan and Mr. S. T. Logan, of Westwood, spent Thanksgiving Day with Miss McKeehan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton McKeehan. They returned to their homes last Saturday.

The Japanese Wedding was a success beyond expectation, financially as well as satisfactorily, to the young, under whose management it was given. They return their thanks to the people for their substantial encouragement in a liberal patronage. We are convinced that the audience heartily enjoyed the entertainment.

Sheppard, the graphic and brilliant lecturer, will give his popular lecture on Andersonville in the Armory Hall, Friday evening, December 7th, for the benefit of the Baptist Sunday-school. Doors open at 7:30, lecture at 8. Admission—25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. Tickets at Col. Glenn's and Col. Walker's stores. Let everybody hear this brilliant and popular lecture. One night only.

A RELIGIOUS DISPUTE.

Discordant Denominational Discussion in Which Creeds are Reviewed and Paragraphs Punctuated with Fokers and Umbrellas.

During last Friday a comparison of views was exchanged in reference to the differences in the creeds and practices of the different denominations of the Hill City. The discussers were Mr. James W. Patterson and Mr. Frank Reed. The forum occupied during the debate was Garrett's drug store. The audience was a limited one, being composed only of the contestants themselves, with Dr. Davis and Elwood Nelson as spectators, the latter named gentlemen finally acting as arbitrators in the contest. Though we have used the term denominational discussion, the reader must not be misled by thinking that each of the discussers was championing his own particular denomination. The controversy was quite general at first, although it tapered down to something local and very personal before a conclusion was reached. In fact, as the respective speakers warmed up to the importance of the subject in hand, some of the thoughts expressed were more vigorous than elegant. Reed seems to have reached a climax in his oratory when he denounced the discussing of his adversary and pronounced condemnation on the views and the individual person of his rival. "Old age" has not cooled the Patterson blood, and he replied with his umbrella on the corporeal head of his ecclesiastical brother. Reed replied by using a product of earth's ore in the shape of a poker and endeavored to let some light into the mental faculties of Patterson by opening the skull. At last accounts both gentlemen are doing well and as firm in the faith as ever.

In the record of the events of the week in our last issue, the above item did not appear. It was not on the program when the events were written up. Though an important entertainment there had been no rehearsal. If there had been any notice given we should have informed our town readers, for we are persuaded that quite a number enjoy a free circus.

Col. Tom Vance Injured.

The news reached us through a correspondent that an uncalculated attack was made upon Col. Tom Vance on last Friday. Tom had been attending a trial at Buford and after the case had gone to the jury he was called aside by John Abe Moberley. The two men went to a part of the room where Bill Moberley was standing. After some hesitation on the part of the Moberley brother, John Abe finally asked the Col. what he (the Col.) was going to do about that note, referring to a note held by Mr. Vance against Wm. Moberley. The Colonel's reply was "I will collect it when it is due." The Moberley brothers both began swearing after this reply and Bill Moberley drew back as though to strike. Vance moved off with the remark that he could not fight one of them to say nothing of two. The Colonel's friends rushed to his assistance and prevented any serious injury being inflicted upon him. He was bruised somewhat and is confined to his bed. The opinion of a great many citizens of that section is that it was a cowardly assault.

Another Hillsboro Man to the Front.

This time it is the ex-landlord of the old Ellicott House, of Hillsboro, Mr. Eli J. Blount. Col. Blount was more recently in charge of the Walnut Street House of Cincinnati. Now we find him Quartermaster of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Sandusky, Ohio. The veterans who are under the guidance of Col. Blount as to their nourishment, are not in a pitiable condition for sustenance to the natural man. Here is their bill of fare for Thanksgiving Day.

ROAST
A la Bourne Famine.
BOAST
Turkey, Cranberry Sauce.
ENTREE
Escalloped Oysters.
Giblets a la Supergro.
VEGETABLES
Mashed Potatoes. Hot Blaw. Stewed Tomatoes.
RELISH
Celery. Pickled Cucumbers. Cheese.
Tomato Catsup.
PARTY
Mince Pie. Coconut Cake.
Tea. Milk. Coffee. Cider.

Lest.

A bunch of keys. The finder will please leave the same at the Kramer House.

G. A. R.

The members of J. M. Barrere Post, No. 205, are hereby earnestly requested to attend the next meeting of the Post on Thursday evening, November 27th, 1888, as that will be the last meeting of year and the time for the annual election of officers for the ensuing year; and also the transaction of important business. It is highly necessary that all the members who can attend should do so. Comrades, do not fail to attend, and let us endeavor to make the coming year as successful or more so as the preceding one. Come promptly at 7:30 o'clock p. m. By order W. T. GREUBER, Adj't.

Removal.

I am now located in the Strauss Building, over I. A. Feibel's clothing store. J. R. CALLAHAN, Dentist.

Friday Night's Jollification.

In conformity to the announcement, the Prohibitionists of Highland county congregated on last Friday night to rejoice over their recent victory. The multitude met in the court room, and promptly at 7:55 o'clock the jollification was called to order. Mr. Emmet Selph was chosen to preside and maintain order. In a few short sentences he explained the purpose for which they had assembled, expressing his individual faith in the ultimate success of the Prohibition party. At the request of the Chairman, the meeting (as is their custom) was opened by prayer. After the prayer the meeting (to use a common phrase) was thrown wide open. It would not be improper to call it a speaking meeting. There was not a prompt response to the call of the presiding officer for speeches. In fact the first statesman called (whose name we did not catch) excused himself. Mr. Frank Austin was next called and expressed his faith, gratitude and satisfaction with the result of the efforts put forth by the third party. Mr. John Naylor was the next speaker, who gave a very interesting talk on the Sunday school lessons for the last quarter. He also expressed his satisfaction and faith in the final triumph of their party. Their repeated resort to sacred history as a basis for their faith and hope of ultimate triumph, brought a text of Scripture to the mind of the NEWS-HERALD man present, that appeared at the time as being both applicable and comforting. The text was "Fear not, little flock, for it is your father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."

But we did not want to intrude. The directness of the text as to the "little flock" may appear to better advantage, when it is known that on an honest 1-2-3 count, twenty persons were present to jollify. This does not include the N. H. man and another citizen, who was trying to place himself in hearing distance only. Of the twenty persons present for the purpose of rejoicing, six will vote when female suffrage is established, two will be old enough, say in 1896, not sooner, and the other twelve (one of whom was of African descent) were the apostolic number who might properly have the comfort to be derived from the above quotation of Scripture. We nearly omitted to report that another jollifier arrived before the close of the meeting from an outlying township. We did not wait for the closing exercises. The collection had not been taken nor was there any sign of benediction or adjournment. To those who were not present it may be said that the faith of those present who expressed themselves was strong, although their remarks had more reference to Caleb and Joshua, the Wilderness, Egypt and Sinking Spring than to the prospects of the Prohibition party.

For Notice of H. C. T. A.

[Amendments for the Gazette notice.]
The Highland County Teachers' Association will meet at the M. E. Church at Hillsboro, Saturday, December 8th, at 10:30, at which time the following program will be rendered:

Musical Devotional Exercises—Music.
The Providence of the Public School, H. G. Williams.
Discussion and Miscellaneous Business.
3 p. m.
Recitation—Father Phil's Collection, Mrs. Moler.
Education Measured by Gold, N. H. Chaney.
Paper, Mrs. D. S. Ferguson.

A Successful Ball.

The ball of Wednesday evening, November 28th, given by Holbrook and Lemon, was a success in every sense of the word. A good-sized company was present, who enjoyed the heel and toe exercise of the evening. The music was furnished by local talent, but none the less entrancing on that account. All present speak very highly of the manner in which the exercises were conducted, and few would not be willing to attend another under the same management.

Why and How.

Kelly says the question is often asked him, "how he can afford to sell goods so cheap." The "Why" is, he is satisfied with a small profit. The "How" is, he buys samples and job lots, and such goods as are forced on the market at half price. He has just received a large lot of woolen goods, consisting of men's and women's underwear, children's hoods, coats, etc., which will be sold regardless of cost.

Will You Read This?

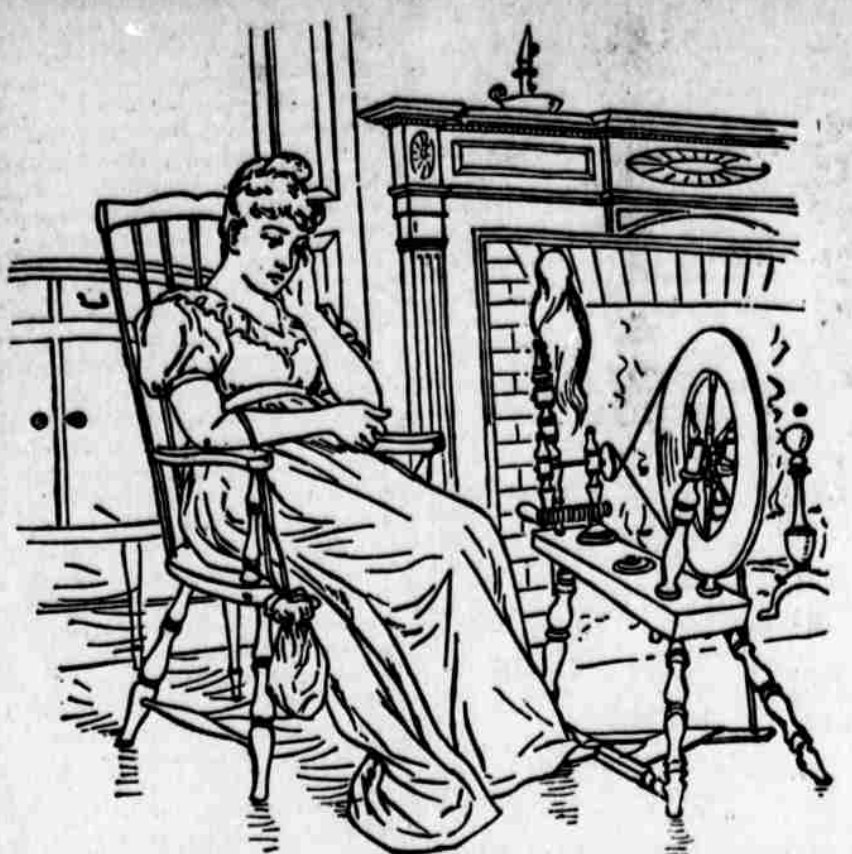

Since the protective idea has been indorsed by the people, Morrow Brothers guarantee protection to all purchases of goods in reduced prices. Special attention is called to their new and attractive line of window shades; also an entire new line of china on sale. Great reduction in prices of wall paper.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr. James G. Smalley and wife would return their heartfelt thanks to their many friends and kind neighbors for their constant attendance and many other marks of kindness shown to the family during the sickness and after the death of their infant daughter, Beatrice.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to return my sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their attention and help in the sickness and death of my wife. A. M. STEVENS.

FRISCILLA spinning, long ago, sighs as she thinks how soon her linen Will lose its glossy luster, when the wash it once or twice has been in. She does not know that in the soap the evil lies that makes her suffer. Its great excess of alkali, which cuts the fiber, makes it rougher.

Our modern maidens need not sigh since IVORY SOAP has been invented, Containing no free alkali—by which the ruin is prevented. For linen washed with IVORY SOAP in snowy beauty'll ne'er diminish, But always, while it lasts, preserve its pristine gloss and lustrous finish.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

Copyright 1886, by Procter & Gamble.

Give Us a Rest.

The flavor of wormy chestnuts is perceptible in some of the accounts that we are receiving of the work of the White Caps. A long communication from Chicago appeared in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette of last Monday. The outrage reported took place at Sardinia some time ago. We do not say the communication is incorrect. But it is singular that the first intimation of such an outrage should come from Chicago. It is not the intention to again (at present at least) denounce the White Caps. We have already said in these columns that they were a lawless set and should be denounced by all law abiding citizens. The very same may justly be said of the sensational reports which are being received and circulated to a listening and, sometimes, credulous public. These wretched, exaggerated stories are circulated to disturb the timid in our communities and are therefore hurtful. On last Friday morning a notice purporting to be given by the White Cap Order was tacked on the scale house on High street, and to make it feasible the report was also added that four masked men were seen riding through the streets. Now we do not ask the brave Alexanders who are smart enough to accomplish such feats to desist, but to those timid ones who are disturbed on hearing such reports, we confidently say that there is not a vestige of truth in one half the reports circulated.

Dead.

Mrs. A. M. Stevens died November 29th, 1888. Mrs. Stevens at the time of her death was 33 years, 3 months and thirteen days, being born August 16th, 1855. She was a daughter of Mr. Geo. V. and Elizabeth P. Nye. Her death leaves four motherless children and a grief stricken husband to mourn her loss. The funeral service took place on Sunday afternoon, December 2d, Rev. Smith, of the Baptist Church, officiating, after which her body was laid to rest in the Hillsboro cemetery to await the great Archangel's trumpet, which shall call the dead to life. The bereaved husband and children have the sympathy of many friends in Hillsboro.

A Branch Store.

Mr. John Bowles, of this place, has started a branch store in Middletown, O. Miss Martha and Mr. Charles Bowles have removed to that city and will have charge of the business.

The Hillsboro store will be continued as before, giving its patrons the benefit of the low prices obtained by greatly increased purchases.

Festival at New Boston.

The Dallas Cornet Band will give an oyster supper at the New Boston school-house on Saturday, December 15. Oysters and other refreshments will be furnished, and good music will be rendered by the band. Everybody and his best girl are invited. Turn out, everybody, and make the occasion a lively one.

KEEP WARM.

Best blanket in America—our own make, only $5.00 per pair.

J. S. ELLIFRITZ & CO.

Port Limon, Bluefield, Jamaica and Honduras bananas, Farnay Florida oranges, Louisiana oranges, new lemons, Spanish onions, new figs, Persian and Farde dates, California evaporated and dried fruits, and a thousand of other groceries for the holidays at the West End Grocery.

Council's Doings.

Council met in regular session last Monday evening. The usual routine business of hearing reports and allowing bills was dispatched without any feeling on the part of the members who have become accustomed to the "I move that the report be accepted and bill allowed."

But there was a little stir in the Chamber when a number of the respected ladies of the W. C. T. U. walked into the room and seated themselves outside the railing. As soon as convenient, the wish of the ladies was inquired into. When Mrs. Gov. Hart, in behalf of herself, the ladies present and the W. C. T. U., as well as the welfare of the homes of Hillsboro, asked the Council to make an effort to enforce the ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicants in the village before it was cast aside as useless. Council agreed to hold an adjourned meeting on Monday evening, December 10th, to consider the matter. A petition numerously signed was presented, asking for an extension of the corporate limits. The petition was referred to special committee consisting of Messrs. Scott, Patterson and Cowman.

A request was presented from the Fire Department calling the attention of Council to the present inefficient methods of giving fire alarms. The consideration of the last request was referred to the Fire Committee.

Burglars' Visit.

On last Tuesday night burglars entered the grocery store of Mr. Wesley Copes by bursting open the front door. The first effort had been made to enter by one of the side windows, but that was abandoned after breaking the glass. Mr. Copes has three money drawers in the store, two being under lock and key. The drawer in which were both money and valuables in the rear of the store was broken open and two silver watches taken; the money, of which some was gold, was left.

The safe at the office of J. M. Boyd & Co. was also broken open by neatly drilling into the combination. A sum of money was obtained. Mr. John Bell was unable to give the exact amount, not having footed his accounts. No sign of where the burglars gained an entrance is visible at the office. The nocturnal thieves also paid the cooper shop a visit, borrowing some tools.

Who are they?

Fire at Georgetown.

The report reaches us by telephone that the Court House at Georgetown, Brown county, was nearly consumed by fire. As it is the floors and partitions are all destroyed. The records are reported saved, which to the people of the town and county will prove a mitigation of their loss.

Annual X-mas Opening

At Bowles' book and china store Friday, Saturday and Monday, December 7, 8 and 10. Everybody is invited to call and see this beautiful display.

We call attention to the notice of a new branch store at Middletown, Ohio. The store will be under the control of Miss Mattie and Mr. Charles Bowles, and need we add that their business ability, integrity and obliging ways will secure for them a liberal share of the patronage of our neighboring city? We are loath to part with our young people of good principles and business qualities. But our loss is a great gain to Middletown.